Protecting Our Places Grant Program Technical Review Committee Membership

This is an exciting opportunity to advise the NSW Environmental Trust on how they fund Aboriginal community organisations and groups to implement on-ground environmental / Cultural projects on Country important to them.

To be a member of the Protecting Our Places (POP) Technical Review Committee (TRC):

- It is preferred that you are an Aboriginal person (but not essential)
- You need to have expertise in one or more of the following areas: land management, Cultural fire, threatened species and community run projects.
- Have had experience working with committees, can provide balanced advice, act with integrity,
- fairness and good judgement and possess good environmental and social awareness.

As a TRC member:

- You will assess grant applications submitted under the annual POP Program and recommend projects for funding by the Trust
- Need to attend 1 – 2 meetings per year
- Receive sitting and reading fees
- Your costs associated with attending face-to-face meetings will be covered
- You will be appointed for four years, including one year of probation.
